REMINGTON APPOINTS ROGER AUFIERI EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS

DALLAS (February 22, 2007) - Remington, the premier service provider to the hospitality industry, today announced the appointment of Roger Aufieri as Executive Vice President of Operations.

Roger previously served as chief operating officer for HEI/Merritt Hospitality, where he managed over 30 branded hotels nationwide. He was instrumental in ensuring outstanding management and profitability through a balanced scorecard and effective labor models.

Prior to HEI, Roger served as president and chief operating officer for White Lodging Services, where he advanced company operations from 13 to 90 hotels in just 12 years, forging a productive and competitive culture that fostered increased revenues, profitability and guest service scores.

"We are confident that Roger's wealth of experience will serve Remington's operations management excellence," said Mark Sharkey, chief operating officer for Remington. "We're delighted to have him on board as we continue our strategic growth."

A New Jersey native, Roger previously served as president of the Fairfield Inn Franchise Advisory Board and has held management positions with franchise advisory boards of Marriott, Renaissance, Courtyard and Residence Inns.
