REMINGTON CO-HOSTS TEXAS HOLD 'EM CHARITY FUNDRAISER SUPPORTING FALLEN HEROES FUND

Tournament Event Hosted by Top Celebrity Poker Showdown Personalities

DALLAS - (February 7, 2007) - Remington, the premier service provider to the hospitality industry™ co-hosted its fourth-annual Texas Hold 'Em charity poker event to benefit the Fallen Heroes Fund in Los Angeles during the American Lodging Investment Summit (ALIS) conference. Held at the Hyatt Regency Century Plaza on January 23, 2007, a themed "Havana Night" event replete with palms, mojitos and cigars, brought together over 150 of the hotel industry's brightest stars and dealmakers for a night of gaming.

Hosts Phil Gordon and Robert Thompson of the Bravo! channel's "Celebrity Poker Showdown" were on hand to share their trademark commentary and expertise with attendees. Gordon, expert poker analyst and co-host for "Celebrity Poker Showdown," is a world-class poker player and businessman, adventure traveler and sports fan. Thompson, Tournament Director of "Celebrity Poker Showdown," JetSetPoker.com, and the Hollywood Park Casino in Los Angeles, has uncovered dynamic new tournament innovations across his 25 years of gaming experience.

The Intrepid Fallen Heroes Fund provides assistance to military personnel who have been disabled or severely injured in operations in Iraq, Afghanistan or in normal performance of their duties. The Fund's goal is to support these heroes in their times of need, and to convey appreciation for the sacrifices they have made for our nation. The Fund also supports the development of a world-class training skills facility at Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio.

"It brings us great joy to contribute to the Intrepid Fallen Heroes Fund and honor the sacrifices our troops have made in defending our nation," noted Mark Sharkey, Chief Operating Officer of Remington. "Phil Gordon and Robert Thompson are truly outstanding hosts, regaling the crowd while engaging guests in competition and deal making."

About the Fallen Heroes Fund

The Intrepid Fallen Heroes Fund training skills facility opened on January 29, 2007, encompassing a 60,000 square foot center at Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio, designed to meet the rehabilitation needs of the patients and their caregivers. The Fund successfully reached its goal of raising $35 million to construct the world-class facility.

The Fund continues to accept donations, to support the Center in providing additional services for patients and their families. These services may include facilities for patients' children, additional medical equipment and supplies, medical research and activities to improve the care of patients and their families. Supported entirely by donations, the Intrepid Fallen Heroes Fund contributions from the public for this effort go to support military families; no administrative costs are deducted. The Fund's Trustees underwrite all administrative costs.
