

REMINGTON'S GALLERY COLLECTION DEBUTS WITH GRAND OPENING OF ONE OCEAN™ RESORT HOTEL AND SPA

North Florida's Newest Hotel Captures Artful Sense of Discovery

DALLAS, Texas (June 3, 2008) - One Ocean™ Resort Hotel and Spa, the first property developed under Remington's new "The Gallery" collection, celebrates its grand opening this month in Atlantic Beach, Fla. The 193-room oceanfront property features a signature Gallery showcasing original works by celebrated American photographer Greg Whitaker; The Spa at One Ocean, a world-class spa with 8 oceanfront treatment rooms; gourmet dining by noted Executive Chef Ted Peters at Azuréa; and 10,000 square feet of flexible indoor/outdoor meeting space.

In keeping with The Gallery's promise to combine an expression of luxury with art and photography in authentic, natural settings, the resort's guest services and amenities include a staff of "Docents" or personal concierges who guide guests through their arrival and discovery, matching experiences to interests.

"One Ocean reflects our hospitality legacy with a world-class debut property that captures the essence of its surroundings and appeals to the unique personalities of its guests," noted Mark Sharkey, President of Remington. "This artistically unique resort will provide amenities that allow guests to feel 'in their element' and offer fulfilling, diverse and enriching experiences."

As the first Remington "Gallery" property, One Ocean™ Resort Hotel and Spa represents the company's newest initiative to create a signature collection of luxury resort hotels in some of the world's most breathtaking destinations. Among their distinguishing characteristics, The Gallery properties feature unique photography that connects each resort hotel's creative spirit and surroundings and appeals to guests' sense of discovery. The Gallery's mantra Always in Your Element™ perfectly describes the guest experience, which is characterized by seamless service and customization.
