RADISSON HOTEL CITY CENTRE INDIANAPOLIS IS HONORED WITH THE 2006 PRESIDENT'S AWARD FOR FIFTH CONSECUTIVE YEAR

DALLAS, TX. -- (May 15, 2007) -- The Radisson Hotel City Centre in Indianapolis, IN, has been named recipient of the 2006 President's Award. This makes for the fifth year that the Remington-managed property has been honored with the prestigious award. The President's Award recognizes Radisson's top performing hotels and resorts that have consistently provided exceptional guest satisfaction and brand engagement.

Each Radisson hotel and resort that is eligible for the President's award must achieve all of the following criteria: maintaining a guest satisfaction index of 8.2 or higher; a 95% or higher rating in overall cleanliness, and a 90% or higher rating in overall conditions. Other criteria include an overall acceptable rating on the 2006 Quality Assurance Evaluation, as well as additional outlined pertinent qualification standards, for which the Radisson City Centre exceeded in all categories.

"We are honored to receive this award now for the fifth year, truly demonstrating our continuous dedication as the premiere management provider," said Mark Sharkey, Chief Operating Officer for Remington.
